

From There to Here II

Fred R. Coulter

- How many more Sabbaths do we have?
- How many more years do we have?
- As many as God has determined, and He hasn't told us!

We still have to walk by faith!

We were shocked when Benazir Bhutto, supposedly the one who was going to rescue the Pakistan situation was assassinated. It really demonstrated the difficulty and problem for those who are trying to get it setup, and they have been for a long, long time, but this is the difficulty that they have in trying to get these nations and people who are very emotional and wild calmed down to the point that they will be reasonable enough to enter into a world structure.

That's really the whole point. They really thought that Bhutto would be able to modify Pakistan and help take care of getting rid of Al Qaeda and the radical jihadist ad so forth. She was the worst possible of the radicals. That's just a paraphrase of what she said. This has created great problems for the war on terror.

The Pakistanis have at least nine nuclear bombs. They are just absolutely worried that the radicals will get a hold of the government in Pakistan and unite with the Taliban and begin to unleash a lot of destruction upon the world. This is really a key point in bringing the world together, or delaying bringing the world together into a new world order, because it's going to come without a doubt.

There are two ways it can go:

1. we can enter into a period of greater instability and a greater number of attacks of the radical Islamist fascist and their terrorist groups or

2. something like this could be a tipping point the other way

How could it be a tipping point the other way?
Several things I think are to bear on it!

Bhutto was viewed by the Muslim women as a real champion to help free the Muslim women from the ultimate oppression that their radical society has brought upon them. The ultimate is to put them in a burqa, never educate them, never let them be seen in public except if they are wearing their full burqa from head to toe, and that's the only way you can tell that it is a woman.

As many have commented, the way to bring about change in the Muslim world is to get more of the women free. There are more and more moderate women who have been able to exert themselves, become professional even in countries like Abu Dhabi, Dubai, United Arab Emirates, and even Saudi Arabia. This is why the radicals are so against what is going on in Iraq, because if Iraq is successful then that's going to be a tipping point to help modify the Muslim world's behavior and put them into a situation where they can become part of a new world order and world government. This was the world in 2007.

This could cause a lot of women in the various Muslim countries to say, 'How dare you kill someone like this. We want nothing more to do with the radicals. It could also tip in that way from another point of view, because President Masharif (Pakistan) had to go, but there may be one glimmer of hope that the world's elite has, which is the new general of the army. Not many people realized it, but he was educated in the United States and educated at Harvard and West Point.

All of these things are part of the chaos that is happening in the world, and is for the purpose of furthering the one-world order, the new world-government.

Remember what I wrote about concerning the ten areas in the world. I was sent a copy of a book that was written in 1992, and I gave a sermon on this at that time. The book is called En Route to Global Occupation by Gary H. Kah {amazon.com}.

What is going on is long term planning by people and organizations to think in generations in a 100-year period or more. A lot of people don't like the book: The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion by Victor Marsden {Biblebelievers.org}. Let me explain about this book.

Yes, I've read this book and have given sermons from it. The Jews say they didn't write it, the Catholics did. The Catholics say they didn't write it, the Russians did. To try and have something so that they could discredit the Jews and bring them down at a time that they want to bring them down.

However, I take a different view after having read it, because when you read and ask: Have these things happened? Which is:

- control of the banks
- control of the press
- control of the schools
- control of the government
 - ✓ local
 - ✓ regional
 - ✓ state

✓ world

Has it happened? It's written out and said that they're going to do it. One of the things they have said is they want to put leaders of all the nations that we control people that we know are corrupted so we can control them. Just think on that! Has that happened? Yes, indeed!

To ask who wrote it, well, if you understand the financial situation, the Jews control most of the banks. But most of the money in those banks belong to the Catholics and the Roman Catholic Church.

A lot of the money that is in the banks comes from the laundering of drug money and so forth. You might think about how much money made from drugs, and then ask: Why don't the leaders of America close down the border? Think on that and do your own research. I think you will come to the conclusion that they are determined to bring about a North American union, and part of it is the whole culture that they have fomented to bring down America. I will show you how they have brought down Britain as a pattern.

How many have heard of The Club of Rome. It's very important to understand. Everything of world globalization is coming out of Rome. There is only one city that fits the pattern that we find here in Rev. 17, which is Rome.

Some people have mistakenly said that John was writing about the current history that was taking place in his time in the book of Revelation. If that were the case then you wouldn't have a prophecy. When you read the book of Revelation you also need to understand that this is talking about the end-time. You will have greater understanding if you also understand that it's talking about worldwide events. And understand that it talks about the major players in bringing about the final world civilization of man, which even IBM has one of its little pictures of what it's doing. It was a very interesting advertisement they used years ago. It showed a picture of the Tower of Babel that was left off and never finished being built. IBM was bragging that 'what they started we will finish!' It's a very revealing statement!

People ask, 'What do you make of that?' Well, those people who are doing those things know what they are doing! When you have an advertisement like that—'that what they started we're going finish'—that is telling you what's coming. That was years ago!

Revelation 17:2—we have the woman who was the harlot riding a scarlet colored beast: "With whom the kings of the earth..." I want you to understand when it says "...kings of the earth..." it means all the rulers of the world!

"...have committed fornication, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication" (v 2)—which comes in many different things:

- religiously
- economically
- human social endeavors

So, it's taking about the kings the earth and all who dwell on the earth. When we're reading this I want you to have a global perspective as to what is going on. If anyone travels the world, they're amazed at the monolithical society that has developed. It's done by uniting religions, and that's coming slower than expected, but they will get there.

So, all you good Baptists out there, listen! That's why Richard Land joined the CFR. And all you good evangelical fundamentalist, listen! That's why Rick Warren is leading the evangelical movement more and more. Please know that he gave the Christmas Eve service on Fox News, which a wholly Catholic owned institution, which means that what he says and does is approved by Rome.

Tony Blair (former Prime Minister of Britain) is now a Catholic, and has me with the pope. When we talk about Britain I think you'll understand. It affects everybody.

She has the name of blaspheme, Mother Babylon the Great, and then it talks about the kings of the earth and so forth.

Verse 12: "And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom, but shall receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast." That's a very interesting statement. How can that be? Either you are a king or you're not a king, except with the modern regional grouping of nations.

We'll use Europe for an example: You have the European Union; it started out with the first agreement that they signed at the Club of Rome, the Treaty of Rome, which was that France and Germany are going to stop fighting each other and are going to work together to produce coal and steel together. Then it came into the European Union every agreement signed in Rome and the Club of Rome.

How can they be kings but haven't received a kingdom, but shall receive authority as kings one hour with the beast?

President Sarkozy was the leader of France and was friendly to America and everyone is happy. The Prime Minister of Germany is Merkel, and the king of Belgium, the prime minister of Holland, Italy, Spain or any of the other nations travel around the world and are recognized for their individual sovereign countries.

But who is the power over them now who has not yet exercised power? The European Union with its president, parliament and courts. They are exercising the court system more and more, and economically they have the euro, so it's all coming together.

In an emergency, which there will be one that will come, who becomes the head of all Europe? The President of the European Union! They will probably have worked into the treaty giving him emergency powers to do so. Replicate this ten times in ten regions around the world and what do you have? Kings that do not have power as kings, until a certain point!

Let's use the example of the coming North American Union. We have the president of the United States, the president of Mexico, and the prime minister of Canada, but there will be a president of the North American Union. In an emergency, because they will have a North American parliament, court and currency—the amero—they take power. You can multiply this to the ten regions wherever they are.

Let's go back and see how they have carefully worked this step-by-step. The beginning of the deterioration of the Protestant Christianity in America began in a very small way in 1893, which was also the time of the writing of Rome's Challenge to the Protestants {truthofGod.org} Please read all the way through, every word, of Rome's Challenge to the Protestants, where they have said that you Protestants either come and stand wholly on Catholic ground, or stick to the Bible only and let that be your authority. If you don't you are in a suicidal position against God. 'When you least expect it, the Roman Catholic Church, in all its haughty authority, will come against you in a time that you do not think of or do not know.'

We're seeing that happen, but first you've got to soften up the Protestants. How do you soften them up?

How did it start with religion? With the World Parliament of Religions—1893! Isn't that interesting that it was the same year that Rome's Challenge was written to the Protestants? They brought in an Indian Hindu, and the whole thrust of it was the result of theosophy by Madam Blavatsky and the Masons. There's a long history of this because it comes step-by-step.

They don't tell you what they're doing right off. What was so marvelous about it was 'look at everything we have in common with the Protestants, Catholics and other religions.' Does that sound a little familiar today? It's been over 120 years since that first started. Then in 1993 they had the World

Parliament of Religions, again, in Chicago, and they were amazed at the change and everyone accepting the different religions.

At the same time that was going on there were other political things. I'm getting ahead of myself...

Rev. 17—here's the key, these all have one mind, all think alike. This is describing the world's elite, beginning with the Club of Rome, under which are the Bilderbergers, the Trilateralists, the CFR and their equivalent everywhere in the world in all nations.

Most people don't realize it but all Masons—everywhere in the world regardless if they are Catholic, Protestant, Buddhist, Hindu or whatever their religion—they all accept themselves as brothers. They are all working together for a one-world government. So, you have it in religion and these special elite organizations

If you believe there's a Satan the devil then you believe that the Bible says that he's deceiving the whole world. How can you deceive the whole world unless you have those who conspire with you, which is a conspiracy?

If this raises the hackles on the back of your neck, let me suggest to you that you have been so brainwashed by the media, because they don't want anyone believing that there is a conspiracy, lest it be exposed, or what they have allowed to be exposed is only to make a test to see how they progressed in bringing the people's thinking along with what they want and continue what they are doing. We need think big!

Revelation 17:13: "These all have one mind, and shall give up their power and authority to the beast." What are regional unions of nations? Giving up authority! The final beast has not come on the scene, yet, though the framework is there with the U.N. As I've said before, I believe it will be transferred to Europe, probably to Geneva.

Verse 14: "These will make war with the Lamb, but the Lamb..." This has to be an end-time event; this could not have been contemporary history during Christ's time. Did any of the kings of Rome fight against Christ? No, because He didn't return in the first century!

Let's expand our thinking beyond this. The return of Christ is going to be greatest, most spectacular thing that is to ever be witnessed by human being on the face of the earth. That's why they're going to fight against it.

The majority of people in the world, whether they believe it or not, have already been exposed to aliens; flying saucers. The way they're going to marshal the support to fight against Christ at His return is to say, ‘this is an invasion from outer space’ — which is true! Christ is invading!

But the antichrist is going to call the invading One the antichrist. Even many Catholic prophecies point to it. If you you’re spending a lot of hours watching television and soap operas and all of that sort of thing, and having your head filled with nonsense—especially with the commercials—and you think what I’m saying is wild and way out, then you’re the one who’s way behind.

“...but the Lamb shall overcome them; for He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are called, and chosen, and faithful” (v 14). We’re going to take over the world!

God has not called us to be nice little handholding Christians squatting in a corner with peace and blank minds. He’s called us to rule the world! Think on that! That’s why our education in God’s Word has to be as intense as we can have it.

Verse 15: “Then he said to me, ‘The waters that you saw, where the whore sits... [where her throne is] ...are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages.’” The amalgamation of the whole world. So, not only do you have the religious center in Rome, you also have the religio-political center in Rome, because every single nation on earth now...

Thanks to Ronald Reagan, he was the one who officially made the United States part of recognizing the pope’s political power by sending a US ambassador to Rome.

Key lesson: regardless of the niceness of the person, or regardless of how good they are, if they don’t belong to Christ Satan is going to use them! Especially if they are nice, because it makes it easier to get the agenda across. Think of that with this coming election. I’ll give you some other tidbits to think upon, with elections they’re telling you that they are going to change America in a way that no one really understands. They’re all fighting to be the change agent so that they can institute is as quickly as they can.

Please also understand this: No one who runs for President in America is going to do anything but make the progress of regionalism go forward. If they don’t, there will be economic consequences that will force them to do it. If they still resist they may end up like John F. Kennedy. So, we’re dealing with powers of this world.

Can you imagine any greater or more important job that you could have, or training that you could have, that God is training you to come against the powers of this world through Christ. And that we are going to overthrow them! Think on it!

Verse 16: “But the ten horns that you saw on the beast shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and shall burn her with fire.” That is when they find out how they have really been deceived and brought into this.

Now, let’s talk about the Club of Rome. The Club of Rome is greater than the Illuminati, greater than the Committee of 300, and if you have ever heard of John Coleman, go online and he talks an awful lot about the Illuminati and the elite. You say, ‘I wonder how he gets away with all this information? I’ll tell you why and how it happens. They want him to do it, and he doesn’t know, but in my opinion, he’s one of their pawns to let the information out so that these elite will understand how much resistance is in the population, and whether they could be a movement formed against them.

What happens? Though the information is out there, as far as doing anything of any consequence, he’s ineffective!

- Has he changed one political party?
- Has he changed one church?
- Has he changed one government?
- No!

So, this tells them that they are succeeding!

In talking about another organization, which is higher than the Rothschilds and the Whalbergs...

By the way, all the world banks are connected together in a network. They’re waiting for the time when they can institute the mark of the beast. We’re marching ever closer to that.

From En Route to Global Occupation by Gary H. Kah on The Club of Rome (<http://newage.insights2.org/Depopulation3.html>):

Another organization that has drawn a high percentage of its members from the Council on Foreign Relations is the Club of Rome.

Who are the ones who are formulating the basis for the coming North American Union? Council on Foreign Relations!

The Club of Rome (COR) claims to be an informal organization...

Listen to this: Remember when Hillary Clinton got caught having Sandy Berger advising her on foreign affairs? What did she say? He’s not on our staff! He’s just an informal consultant! So, this is how they present it. When they say informal it means more official than official, because this is above being official.

...of less than one hundred people who are, in their own words, "...scientists, educators, economists, humanists, industrialists, and national and international civil servants..."

the elite of the world

...Included among these have been members of the Rockefeller family. Altogether, there are approximately twenty-five CFR members who belong to the American Association for the Club of Rome....

So, they have the Club of Rome with a hundred, and then they have other branch organizations going out in different places.

...The Club had its beginnings in April 1968, when leaders from ten different countries gathered in Rome at the invitation of Aurelio Peccei, a prominent Italian industrialist with close ties to the Fiat (there's a company worth looking at) and Olivetti Corporations....

and the Vatican, because this could not be done without their approval. Most people do not understand how deeply the Catholics and the Vatican are involved in the United Nation, because this suits their purposes.

...The organization claims to have the solutions for world peace and prosperity. However, these solutions always seem to promote the concept of world government at the expense of national sovereignty.

Do a Google search on world government. As I've said years ago, when the UN has separate individual taxing power the world government has been established. They're trying to do that.

Everyone has been propagandized, massaged and dumbed down to where that's the only way to solve the problem. How are you going to solve the problems in Pakistan? Are you going to send in American troops? Then you'll get the Islamists in America rising up against us! What if you had an international army? I'll read to you that they're going to have one.

This is big time stuff that we're looking at here. We're looking at huge events. This was not their beginning, this was the launching of the final phase what I'm reading to you about the Club of Rome in 1968. That's was the launching of the final phase, knowing it would take time, step-by-step-by-step.

With all the severe problems you need a world government. What do you need to go along with a world government? Authority and a world bank! A world bank with a perfect system of identification. So, the mark of the beast is coming. Wait till I read you what they're doing with the human mind. They are planning fantastic things for the human mind, beyond what we have ever thought.

The Club of Rome has been charged with the task of overseeing the regionalization and unification of the entire world...

Yes, what one of the pages show is ten regions of the world.

...the Club could therefore be said to be one step above the Bilderbergers in the one-world hierarchy. (COW's founder, Peccei, has been a close associate of the Bilderbergers.) As far as I have been able to determine, most of the directives for the planning of the world government are presently coming from the Club of Rome.

What do you mean directives? Those unseen agreements that are informal, that are agreed to by the servants of the countries to give up the sovereignty of their nation to a region!

The Club's findings and recommendations are published from time to time in special, highly confidential reports, which are sent to the power-elite to be implemented. On 17 September 1973 the Club released one such report, entitled Regionalized and Adaptive Model of the Global World System, prepared by COR members Mihajlo Mesarovic and Eduard Pestel.

The document reveals that the Club has divided the world into ten political/economic regions, which it refers to as "kingdoms."....

Just like Rev. 17!

This sounds more like Dan. 7:15-28 in the making.

...While these "kingdoms" are not set in concrete and changes could still occur, it gives us an idea of what lies ahead.

Referring to the Mesarovic-Pestel study, Aurelio Peccei, the Club's founder, states: "Their world model, based on new developments of the multilevel hierarchical systems theory, divides the world into ten interdependent and mutually interacting regions of political, economic or environmental coherence... It will be recognized of course that these are still prototype models. Mesarovic and Pestel have assumed a Herculean task. The full implementation of their work will take many years.”

We’re looking back, hasn’t been done! Then he talks about a book entitled Mankind at the Turning Point:

...which was intended for public consumption, which the authors display the same ten regions. Only this time the word kingdoms has been omitted.

They are regions or unions!

At the conclusion of the book, P.C. remarks, “Philosophers have, from ancient times, stressed the unity of the existence: one-world, one people. And the interconnection of all the elements of nature, man and thought...

which is pantheism. There are those who were paid for by Ophra Winfrey on the Sirius Satellite station in bringing the New Age improve yourself religion to the world, which is nothing more than what has been in the past.

However, their teaching has seldom been reflected in political or social behavior. The Club of Rome and its network of affiliated organizations would change all of that.

The Club of Rome’s New Age slant is reflected in its American membership, which included Norman Cousins, long time honorary chairman of planetary citizens and possibly the best known and respected name in the forefront of the New Age movement.

He lists other members, and so forth.

Also, some of the members include Planned Parenthood, Aspen Institute for Humanist Societies, Rockefeller Foundations...

They’re all part of the same network

There are more people at the forefront of establishing the New World Order. There can be no mistaking the fact that they have political connections.

From the book The Limits to Growth...
(<http://www.donellameadows.org/wp-content/userfiles/Limits-to-Growth-digital-scan-version.pdf>)

Haven’t you heard that before? Jerry Brown said, ‘We all have to get used to living with less.’ That’s when they brought out the ugly Volkswagon and everyone said that we have to go smaller. Well, soon we’re going to be convinced that we need to give up our RVs and go by bicycles. The Club states:

We believe in fact that the need will quickly become evident for social innovation to match technical change, for radical reform of institutions and political processes at all levels, including the highest, that of world polity.

So, when any candidate says that he/she is the one who is going to ‘bring about change’ and when it says that ‘we need to reorganize the government from top to bottom,’ what are they talking about? Those are messages to the globalist that ‘I am your pawn’!

The executive committee of the Club of Rome concluded the book with the following:

We believe that an unexpectedly large number of men and women of all ages and conditions will readily respond to the challenge and will be eager to discuss not if but how we can create this new future.

The Club of Rome plans to support such activity in many ways....

How? By philanthropic grants from foundations to foster these organizations that couldn’t stand on their own two feet without it, to subvert the societies more and more!

And, since intellectual enlightenment is without effect if it is not also political, The Club of Rome also will encourage the creation of a world forum where statesmen, policy-makers, and scientists can discuss the dangers and hopes for the future global system without the constraints of formal intergovernmental negotiation.

From Mankind at the Turning Point

The Club is no less blatant about its intentions, referring to the problems of economic control, food shortages and the environment.

It’s all wrapped up together.

I was in a store and thought, everything in this store came from the earth that God has created. Someone somewhere had to plant it, harvest it, to grow it, or to make it and plant it and so forth. All the customers can come in and you can get what you want from the world’s market. You can get anything you want!

It’s all tied together. Remember, the banks always win! Because you get money from one bank—or you get your employer to pay you—and what do you do with it? You put it in another bank! So, it’s sill in the banking system. Everybody is going to win big time, which will be another sermon concerning the mark of the beast. When the mark of the beast comes:

- no one will be able to get out of paying taxes
- no one will be able to have identity theft
- no one will have to fiddle with cash
- no one will have to fiddle with credit cards

It's going to be an ideal system!

- we can control all criminals
- we can track all pedophiles

Isn't that a wonderful solution?

continuing with Mankind at the Turning Point:

Mankind is no less blatant. The solution of these crises can be developed only in a global context.

In the news listen for global, world, economic, environmental... Hey, it sounds like every other world in the nightly news!

With the full and explicit recognition of the emerging world-system and on a long-term basis.

They plan ahead a hundred years! Most of us can't plan ahead more than two weeks. And almost everyone's life is so wrapped up in getting along day-to-day and week-to-week, and they're so busy going here and there, and when they watch television they want to be entertained so they can get all the stuff out of their minds. They don't think, they don't understand, they don't know where they're going, except they want a place to live, food to eat and they want to be permitted by the state to have their own. That's what it's coming to.

This would necessitate among other changes a new world economic order and a global resources allocation system.

Have you heard of that? We've got to allocate how much you get.

A world consciousness must be developed in which every individual realizes his role as a member of the world community.

Watch any movie that is somewhat futuristic and that's where it's headed. If you want a real eye-opener, get the movie Enemy of the State. It's a precursor of what they can do when they get rid of currency and credit cards, because here was this man who was against what they were doing on a globalization basis.

What happened is that they marked him, took away his identity, they put out false stories about him that he was a criminal and they were searching for him. But it really was, he was going to expose the evil of what they were doing, so they eliminated his identity in every computer, they took away his credit cards, cancel all of phones; he did not exist at all! But he did exist as a person.

We have a world-consciousness that is being developed:

- What's happening in the school system?
- Why don't they teach them about the history of America? Because that does not develop world-consciousness!
- Why don't they teach morals? Because they don't want morals; they want a homosexual society!

Don't teach the truth about God and have prayer in school, because God says that you are a sovereign individual and you need to govern your own life by His Laws, and the world government says no, we don't want individuality, we want members dictated by our behavior model to them! That's what's happening in education around the world.

I need to mention again: change by incrementalism; do it a step at a time! When a lady traveled to East Germany years ago, the guide said that all the women must work and the state takes care of all the children. They are formed into a world consciousness. They couldn't do that in America, so what do they do? They have programs that are voted on:

- head start
- no child left behind

And Hillary Clinton, if she was elected President, wanted to start every child out with $5,000 in a bank account. If you pay $5,000 you control that individual! You now become a totally ward of the state and lose your individual identity, and start out the control from birth.

They're going to have an awful time, but sooner or later they're going to have to deal with home-schooling, because that is the best and in America it's highly developed. In Germany it's outlawed, and parents can be put in jail. That tells you what kind of system is going to come.

Being a member of the world community, it must become part of the consciousness of every individual that the basic unit of human cooperation, and hence survival, is moving from the national to the global level.

Let's see a very, very interesting prophecy concerning the coming world-system and the coming world-leader. But remember that the world-system must be in place before the world-ruler can take over. If the ruler comes on the scene first, he then must implement the system, and he won't have time to implement the system. He would be considered a conqueror to do so. So, you conqueror:

- by incrementalism
- by cooperation
- by trade
- by agreements
- by giving up a little bit of sovereignty
- by giving up a little bit of independence for security
- creating crises which will foment these things along

Dan. 8 is talking about the 2300 days; we're not going to get into the explanation. Daniel 8:17: "So, he... [an angel] ...came near where I stood. And when he came..." This is important because God has warned ahead of time thousands of years, because:

- He knows what's in the heart of man
- He knows what's in the heart of Satan
- He knows what's going to happen

"...I was terrified and fell upon my face. But he said to me, 'Understand, O son of man, for the vision is for the time of the end'" (v 17). We're living close to the time of the end.

Then he [the angel] showed him what was going to happen, v 19: "And he said, 'Behold, I will make you know what shall happen in the latter time of the indignation... [right up to the return of Christ and the saints on the earth] ...because it belongs to the appointed time of the end. The ram which you saw having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. And the shaggy goat is the king of Greece. And the great horn between his eyes is the first king'" (vs 19-21).

So, what we are talking about is the continuation of the world's system at the time of Babylon down to the return of Christ, now manifesting itself in a little bit different way that in Dan. 2 and later in Dan. 7.

Verse 22: "Now, that being broken, then four stood up in its place; four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with its power." That's what happened, four generals took over the empire that Alexander the Great had conquered in conquering the Medes and the Persians. It's interesting that Alexander the Great died in Babylon.

By the way, all the fantastic Greek philosophy came from the Babylonians. The Greeks don't like to admit it, but that's where it came from.

Talking about the end-time, v 23: "And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full..." What does that mean? That ties right in with 2-Thess. 2, when the apostasy comes to the full! That means when the whole world and mankind has rejected God, and is going after this one-world system with its one-world leader who will be declared 'God' on the earth, with its one false prophet and all the religions coming together.

A hundred years ago you could not even begin to understand these prophecies. But now we see it developing. Now we can see parts of it; we can look back with 20/20 vision hindsight. When you have 20/20 hindsight it's a whole lot easier to understand things.

"...a king, fierce of countenance and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up" (v 23). This is the final beast, but remember the world system must first be created for him to assume control over. There must be a final crisis, which will precipitate the emergency measures necessary for the ten regional kings—who have not been called kings—to receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

Verse 24: "And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power. And he shall destroy marvelously... [we know how that can be today] ...and shall prosper and do his own will... [witchcraft, knowing it's from Satan that's right in there] ...and destroy the mighty and the Holy people."

This world-system is going to come, but we're seeing how the finality of it is going to take place. We'll come back and talk about the structure leading up to it. We find the exactly same thing in Rev. 13; this is after the deadly wound is healed:

Revelation 13:5: "And a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies was given to him; and authority was given to him to continue for forty-two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, and His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven. And he was given power to make war against the saints... [ties in with what we just read, destroy the mighty and the Holy people] ...and to overcome them; and he was given authority over every tribe and language and nation" (vs 5-7).

The finality of the world-system; he takes over! So, the system must be put in place first, and this is what we are seeing.

Verse 8: "And all who dwell on the earth will worship him..." Think about this for a minute: Whenever you read a statement like this, God is telling us—looking from His perspective from heaven—what's going to happen on the earth. When it says all who dwell on the earth, it means all, except the saints.

"...will worship him whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. If anyone has an ear, let him hear” (vs 8-9). In other words, you had better listen because it’s going to happen!

Maybe it won’t happen in your lifetime, but somewhere in somebody’s lifetime down toward the end, it’s going to happen. It’s going to happen to everybody who is alive at the end-time.

I don’t know if I’m going to still be alive at that time. If we go another ten years I’ll be 83-years-old. I don’t know how long beyond that that God may give me. What do all of us need to do?

- 1) we need to get right with God
- 2) we all need to help prepare for the next generation that’s coming along

They’re not going to have time to research and read all kinds of books. They’re going to have these things condensed and put together so that they can have it now. But one thing that is facilitating people learning today is not only all the information that is there, but the Internet is a great facilitator in getting information that people could not have gotten even five years ago, let alone going on back and reading some of these commentaries like Jamieson Faussett and Brown that are well over a hundred years old. Jamieson Faussett and Brown today, other than explaining certain words, is virtually worthless in trying to understand the commentaries when you come to Rev. 13, like we just read here.

Daniel 8:25: “And also through his cunning he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand.... [that means the occult religions of this world will be the leading religions] ...And he shall magnify himself in his heart, and in time of security...”—peace and prosperity. There’s coming a time when there will be peace and prosperity, and the mark of the beast will do that. No one can make war because no one can assemble. It will be known if you are assembling illegally.

No one can raise funds to start and insurrection, rebellion or coup because they will be able to know the people who are gathering together wherever they are.

“...shall destroy many...” (v 25). How are you going to destroy man without causing war? By regionalization! The way the ten regions of the world are looking right now, every single modern day end-time ten-tribe Israelite nation will be put into regions and will lose their identity. The country will change, but they won’t change countries.

How is that for a slight of hand? and a clever way of doing it?

“...He also shall stand up against the Prince of princes...” (v 25). There’s only one individual who is going to do that, the beast of Rev. 13 & 17!

“...But he shall be broken... [Rev. 19] ...without a human hand” (v 25).

Let’s talk about the structure. God has raised up a good number of prophets. Not religious prophets as we know them; there are secular prophets who tell you what is happening in the political world. A lot of them believe in God, and they will tell you so. There are also financial prophets who tell you what’s going to happen.

Now, here’s a prophet in Britain and here is his warning to Britain. Let me just state that Queen Elizabeth I oversaw the rise of Britain to a great world power and to become the richest nation in the world because God’s hand was with Britain to do that at the time that He was beginning to raise up the modern nations of Israel in the end-time.

Queen Elizabeth II, who has reigned an inordinately long time and has absolutely no desire to advocate to let either her son or grandson to become king. She is overseeing the demise of Britain. In doing so, you have ask: How much does she know? I don’t know, but you know she would not do it unless she was guaranteed to have the throne continue howbeit in a much more highly ceremonial way than it is now.

When all the nations of Europe were to vote on the European Union Constitution many years ago, they all voted it down, and everyone said, ‘Hooray! We’ve avoided a takeover.’ No! All they do, because they have the power, they just come around with deception by incrementalism. There’s away around it. They took the same constitution and put it on the shelf and said that they needed to redo it.

What they did, they re-worded certain parts of it and brought the same thing back as a treaty. Whenever the sovereigns of a nation sign a treaty, they are signing sovereignty over to the treaty. Whatever the treaty contains becomes the law of the land to supersede the constitution, and also, in this case, the throne.

The sixth...

That’s a very interesting number!

...and final treaty has now been named: its is the Reform Treaty, due to be signed by the Queen in the Summer of 2008. This is a year before the deadline set by the Chancellor of Germany, Angela Merkel

The Nazis have won, though they lost the war! They just change colors, change appearance, just like it says of the Assyrians: you're like grasshoppers that change. So, through the Club of Rome, the European Union in all the agreements there, they now have figured out how to conquer Europe without firing a single shot!

Merkel and former French President Giscard d'Estaing are among many European ministers who have confirmed the Treaty is the EU Constitution, almost unchanged. If they are right, it will abolish the British Constitution, and therefore the nations of Britain and England, sweeping away our Westminster Parliament, and giving the EU dictatorship the power to close it.

This sixth treaty is the fastest moving and most secret the EU has drafted; opposition to and recognition of the EU as a police state is growing, and they know speed is vital.

The Countdown to abolition

Tony Blair agreed to it on 23rd June 2007 as his final stab in Britain's back. On the 23rd July there was an Intergovernmental Conference (IGC), when we should have seen a first draft of the Treaty.

That never took place.

...but Gordon Brown now signs on December 13th 2007. The Queen and Parliament to abolish Britain summer 2008. Parliament begins the ratification in February 2008...

Remember, they're locked into it and cannot change

...and has allocated 29 days to discuss this treaty and its own abolition. They could well vote in March. The Queen plans to give her Royal Assent in June 2008.

That's how nations lose their sovereignty and your country no longer becomes your own because you're absorbed into a regional basket of nations.

This means Westminster will pass the treaty, and the Queen will sign it behind our backs, as they have the other five treaties.

She is seeing the demise of Britain.

Here's the key, just exactly like Satan always does, he gets these things through that are illegal so that they become legal. It's not legal what they are doing with the SPP to form the North American Union, but the governmental agencies are doing it behind the scenes without a formal declaration so they can say that these are just informal meetings. The EU remains illegal as far as those who know about sovereignty in Britain are concerned.

No referendum

The EU remains illegal

Each of these six treaties are completely illegal under the British Constitution, our 1689 Bill of Rights, our treason laws, and under our common law. It is unforgivable that the Queen, her Ministers and our Parliament have committed the criminal act of treason by signing these treaties, and broken our laws to abolish our nation.

The EU will always be illegal in Britain; but once the EU has complete power and control here, we can no more get rid of it than we could Germany, had their planned illegal occupation of Britain in 1940 been successful.

So, the Nazis have won without firing a shot! One way or the other they are going to conquer Britain. Here's what they have done:

Where we are now:

1. Since 1972 The Queen has illegally signed five of the six EU Treaties.
2. The five treaties define and build the EU as an unelected dictatorship.
3. The EU's laws, passed by Westminster, give it the powers of a police state.

By incrementalism; by treaty. Once it is past then all they need to do is enforce it.

4. The sixth EU treaty will complete the abolition of Britain as a nation—the Queen is due to sign it next year. A foreign power, the EU, will then rule us, and enforce the laws of a police state.

That happened to the ten tribes of Israel in the past when they sinned against God. He sent the different nations to rule them and they became vassal states. That's what this is. Britain, America, Australia, New Zealand and Canada will become vassal states. Their countries will no longer be their own, but they will become part of a global entity. The structure will be there for the beast.

5. Thirty three years inside the EU—have you noticed how our democracy is being withdrawn?

Look what's happened to the preparation for the North American Union.

6. Massive EU corruption

Same way with our corrupt politicians!

7. The bribing of our Politicians by the EU

Another thing that is important to realize, and you can go vote if you want to, but just understand that your vote is going to be absolutely meaningless because only the ones that the master Club of Rome and the elite societies of this world want to represent them in whatever level of politics there is, they're the only ones that are going to be elected. Once and while a renegade will get in.

8. EU corruption is now exploding through our Civil Service

Because of this all police cannot be prosecuted for crimes. That is Catholic cannon law.

9. Businesses closing under EU regulation

If they don't submit to it then they are out of business.

10. The EU costs us £200 billion pa, 20% of our economy

11. Our counties to be abolished

The Queen signed the 1992 Maastricht Treaty, which adopts the EU Regionalisation Plan. This will abolish England's 48 counties and replace them with 9 European regions, each with their own Regional Capital, which reports directly to Brussels, not to Westminster. This effectively obliterates the country of England. For example the County of Cornwall is replaced by the South West Region, which stretches from Lands End and includes Gloucestershire and Wiltshire; its regional capital is Exeter. As this move is unpopular it is being kept low-key and will not be implemented until the sixth treaty is signed, when we lose our right to object.

Everyone is going to get a new address.

12. The deliberate destruction of our standards and way of life

That's how the modern nations of Israel are going to go into captivity without being transported somewhere else. They will change the government and the nation and it will no longer be God's people.

If the sixth Treaty is signed, we lose our right to withdraw and Britain ceases to be a nation.

In the EU, (which means in Britain) government is above the law.

We have lost the right to freedom

We have lost the right to free speech

We have lost the right to protest

The Governments "terrorism" deception

We have lost the right to life

The EU police will have the orders to shoot and kill on sight.

What will life be like in the EU after the 6th Treaty is signed?

It shows exactly what it will be.

How long will the EU last?

Eventually, perhaps 15 years down the track

You will see that around the world all nations are being regionalized and we are so locked in with trade, finances, currency and indebtedness that there is no where to go because the octopus or squid-like arms of Satan has come around and is embracing all the nations of the world into this one-world global system.

We're right now at the door of the last stages of this being developed. So, the framework is going to come together before the man of sin is revealed.
